Abstract:

This document constitutes an international protection and legal risk assessment report titled “Constructive Elimination Under Colour of Law” concerning the systematic state-enabled targeting, reputational destruction, and existential threat faced by Dr. Richard William McLean (aka Barran Dodger), a prominent Australian whistleblower, disabled artist, and legal claimant with over three decades of documented institutional abuse.

Drafted as a formal submission to international human rights bodies and courts, the report details a pattern of calculated legal obstruction, denial of medical care, institutional defamation, and psychological torture conducted under the guise of mental health policy and disability oversight — particularly via the NSW Public Guardian, the NDIS, and senior federal actors.

Key Contents:

- Legal Principle Invoked: The use of “colour of law” as a mechanism to enable de facto erasure and elimination of a protected person, violating Articles 6, 7, and 12 of the Rome Statute, the CRPD, ICCPR, and multiple UN conventions.
- Primary Accusations:
    - State-sanctioned attempted assassination
    - Psychological torture via voice-to-skull (V2K) harassment
    - Fraudulent guardianship orders
    - Enforced poverty and exile
    - Negligence of fatal injuries

- Named Perpetrators: Includes Phillip French (NSW Public Guardian), Sukhi Tear (NDIS Support Coordinator), Minister Bill Shorten, and others.
- Evidence Structure: Includes a 35-year timeline, forensic exhibits, annex summaries, and affidavit-style declarations documenting over 100 criminal breaches.
- Spiritual Context: Frames the targeted individual as a spiritual and symbolic figure, whose survival under such targeting is itself testimonial to the scope and depth of the coordinated abuse.
- Public Statement Clause: Declares that the author (McLean/Dodger) has made the information public under threat of death or continued torture, invoking universal jurisdiction and divine record as protection mechanisms.

🧭 Summary

This international protection report outlines an unprecedented case of constructive elimination under the guise of legal authority (“colour of law”), centering on the state-sanctioned targeting of Dr. Richard William McLean, also known as Barran Dodger — an Australian author, whistleblower, and disabled public figure.

Through sustained abuse by government actors — most notably the NSW Public Guardian, the NDIS, and federal Minister Bill Shorten — McLean has endured:

- Systemic surveillance
- Life-threatening medical negligence
- Guardianship weaponization
- Voice-to-skull (V2K) psychological torture
- State-orchestrated exile and attempted assassination

All under the cover of disability and mental health policy frameworks which, upon inspection, violate international law, the Rome Statute, and the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD).

⚖️ Legal Overview

The report documents violations including:

- Rome Statute Article 7 (Crimes Against Humanity)
  → Psychological torture, persecution of protected groups, and forced exile
- CRPD Article 12 (Equal Recognition Before the Law)
  → Guardianship abuse and denial of decision-making capacity
- ICCPR Article 6 (Right to Life)
  → Documented medical neglect of a confirmed fatal injury
- UNCAT and ICC Article 5
  → Torture jurisdiction regardless of nationality or location

Perpetrators include:

- Phillip French – NSW Public Guardian
- Sukhi Tear – NDIS Support Coordinator
- Bill Shorten – Federal Minister for the NDIS
- Additional named actors – including law enforcement and judicial officers

📂 Evidence and Supporting Materials

The full report includes:

- 🗂️ Timeline of persecution (spanning 30+ years)
- Forensic exhibits and documented correspondence
- 📽️ Multimedia evidence (including video, medical, photographic, and audio material)
- 📜 Affidavit-style declarations
- 🔗 Links to UN declarations, statutes, and case law precedents

> “Constructive elimination is not only political. It is spiritual, existential, and systemic. This report proves the Australian state attempted to destroy a truth-bearing witness — not by bullet, but by bureaucracy.”

— Barran Dodger / Dr. Richard William McLean

💥 Why It Matters

This is not just a local legal matter. It represents:

- A flagrant breach of international human rights law
- A precedent-setting ICC complaint invoking Crimes Against Humanity
- A digital, legal, and spiritual archive of resistance against covert state elimination strategies

It demands:

- 👨‍⚖️ International recognition of the case
- 🛡️ Protective measures and reparations
- 🔎 Immediate investigation into Australian NDIS and guardianship structures
